

Internationally known French/American Master Bronze Portrait Sculptor, Martine Vaugel, is also known as a Classical Figure Sculptor. Her Contemporary Figures and Portrait Bas Reliefs are in high demand.

Ms. Vaugel expresses her love affair with the human spirit in the hundreds of small to medium size bronzes she displays in museums, private collections and her studios both in France and America. See examples in the Gallery .

Martine has been commissioned to do monuments and portraits (public and private) and continues to take (2) Commissions per year.

When not working on sculpture, Martine Vaugel is the proud teacher of thousands of figure sculptors who use her method around the world. Her teaching methods have been documented in videos and a book is currently in production in three languages. If you'd like to study with Martine, please see Study Programs .

If you'd like to pursue Private Instruction with Martine Vaugel in France, please read more in P

Private Studies

If you're passing through the Loire Valley and would like a very special place to stay, please check availability of lodgings in Martine's beloved village, Les Cerqueux Sous Passavant .